Special Announcements

Did you enjoy today’s presentations? Would you like to see the full-length papers? Interested in learning about presentations from earlier conferences? Information about the 2009-2013 History Department Undergraduate Conferences is available through Helmke Library on Opus: Research and Creativity at IPFW (opus.ipfw.edu). This year’s conference material will be uploaded over the summer.

The Department of History is on Facebook! (www.facebook.com/IPFWHistory) This is a great way for current students and alumni to keep in touch with the IPFW History community and spreading information about classes, events, and news.

Do you know of an event on campus or in town that you think other History majors would be interested in?
Have you read a new History book that you especially enjoyed?
Do you have an accomplishment that you would like the Department to know about?
Post it on our page!
If you haven't done so already, please "Like" us, and we hope to hear from you soon!

Preliminary Call for Papers for the 2015 7th Annual Undergraduate History Conference
If you wrote an excellent paper for your Spring 2014 course, it is never too early to submit a proposal for the next year’s Undergraduate Conference. Contact Professor Ann Livschiz if you have any questions.

***

The Department of History will continue to sponsor the “Lunch with a Historian” series in 2014-2015. The speakers will be announced in the fall of 2014.

***

The Department of History continues to offer credit and non-credit internship opportunities for history majors.
If you are interested in doing a history internship for credit, please contact Professor Christine Erickson.

The Department of History has partnered with Career Services to expand a number of internship opportunities available to students. Check out www.ipfw.edu/career/students/job/historyinternships.shtml for more information. If you are interested in a non-credit internship, contact Karen Campbell in Career Services.
