

Call for Manuscripts

Fall 2011 Theme Open
Deadline for Submission March 2011

Spring 2012 Theme Open
Deadline for Submission January 15, 2012

Submission Guidelines Manuscripts, including text, quotations, figures, tables, references, and photographs must meet the style requirements of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (Fifth Edition, 2001). Authors should follow the sections on “Manuscript Preparation and Sample Paper” (pp. 283–320), “Elements and Examples of References in APA Style” (pp. 231–281), and “Checklist for Manuscript Submission” (pp. 379-383). Manuscripts that do not conform to these requirements will be returned to the authors and may delay a timely review. Manuscripts should be typed or word processed using Microsoft Word and should not exceed 5,000 words in length. Authors are encouraged to submit their work electronically to the e-mail address below. However, authors can also submit four (4) hard copies on 8 1/2 x 113 white bond paper, one side only, with all copy double spaced to the address below.

Regardless of how the article is submitted, the blind review process dictates that information that could identify the authors or institutions should not appear in the manuscript itself. Two separate documents should accompany the manuscript. An abstract of not more than 300 words should be provided. In that document, you should also include 3-6 keywords that can be used to index your article. The second document is a cover page that includes the authors’ postal address, e-mail address, phone number, fax number, and school or university affiliations.

If the manuscript is accepted for publication, each contributor must submit the manuscript electronically. The editors reserve the right to make minor editorial changes that do not significantly alter the substance of the text.

Ideally, manuscripts should be submitted electronically to scholarlypartnersedu@ipfw.edu .
